Listing Summary

Business Description: The business is focused 100% on commercial distribution of high-quality commercial building materials. The owner has focused the product mix in a niche area, allowing the company to maintain a dominant position in the market place. The company's ability to provide high-quality products and high-quality service with an impeccably organized infrastructure is unmatched in the industry, resulting in long-term customers and repeat business. THEIR REPUTATION IS IMPECCABLE.

The company has reduced its risk with a solid product mix that is consistently in demand, low customer concentration, solid distribution contracts from Virginia to Massachusetts, and excellent/loyal personnel all over 5 years with the company.

Historical Summary: Founded 1980 as retail only, the current owner used his turn-around expertise to purchased and rebuild the business ten years ago. He shifted the strategy to focus 100% on commercial customers and has maintained superior credit worthiness throughout. After a few initial years of restructuring personnel, the past seven years has focused on streamlining the product mix, operations and integrated computer systems to prepare a profitable and stable base for the company's growth phase. The owner has reached his planned retirement time.

The owner has recently secured major distribution contracts with highly-supported, high-quality national brands that could double the sales revenue over the next few years.
