

Non-Disclosure Agreement

I, the undersigned, acknowledge that I am not to disclose any Confidential Information that I am provided by Central Coast Business Brokers with regard to any business for which information is being provided.

Confidential Information may include information such as the fact that the business is for sale, all financial production, marketing and pricing information, business materials, business manuals, manufacturing procedures, correspondence, processes, data, contracts, customer lists, employee lists and any other information whether written, oral or otherwise.

Such Confidential Information shall be provided to me for the sole purpose of evaluating the possible purchase of all or part of the stock or assets of the business. By signing this Non-Disclosure Agreement you understand and agree that disclosure of confidential or proprietary information can result in harm to an existing business, and that you can be held accountable for damages or injury resulting from any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information that is disclosed without first obtaining written consent from Central Coast Business Brokers.
